CELEBRATING A CENTENARIAN: Reaching 100 is a huge milestone, and we were thrilled to celebrate it with resident Marty Weiner. Our Community Services team presented Marty with a cake, balloons, a card from residents and staff, and a veal parmesan dinner with all the fixings. Happy Birthday, Marty!

SMILES are not meant to be hidden, says Rental Associate Kathy Megna. She solved the problem with her new mask, which she hopes brings a smile to the (masked) faces of everyone she meets.

Scavenger HUNT

Resident John Corcoran, one of many who came out to play, places an item in his bag and checks it off his list.

Aveanna welcomes new Resident Service Director Beth Stupell-Spiro. Beth earned a BA in journalism and psychology prior to graduating from nursing school in 1992. She comes to us with many years of experience in homecare, memory care, and assisted living. When asked what most excites her about her new role, she said, "It is an excellent opportunity to work with great people and use my experience to enhance the programs."
