ORCHARD HOUSE: Every month, we take a trip to a museum. In late June, we visited Orchard House in Concord, MA. This historic house was the residence of 19th century author Louisa May Alcott, best known for the beloved classic Little Women. Most of the period furnishings in the home were actually owned by the Alcott family, providing a fascinating picture of how they lived. Residents enjoyed visiting the house, which you may recognize from the recent film version of the book. Pictured above, left to right: Community Services Associate Emily Morais, resident Joan Nancoz, Community Services Associate Maddie Fennell, and residents Carol Bajor and Carol Bailly.

Mark your calendar for September 11 from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. In the event of rain, the fair will take place indoors. Keep an eye out for more details soon.
