GIVE PEACE A CHANCE: We're still abuzz over the latest attraction to grace the main lobby: an attention-grabbing Peace Post. This colorful column is covered in handcrafted ceramic tiles made by the kids at Express Yourself, an arts immersion nonprofit based at Cummings Center, in Beverly. Better still, tucked away inside the Peace Post are dozens of scrolls bearing the hopes and dreams of the impressive student artists who designed it. Above, left to right: residents Joe Dzigas and Vivian Akillian enjoy the Peace Post.

DENNIS AND CHERYL HUNT: Dennis is originally from Malden, and Cheryl is from Cambridge. Dennis worked at, managed, and owned a service station; Cheryl worked as a secretary. Dennis also served as mayor of Marlborough from 2004 to 2008. They have four children and 11 grandchildren.

The couple enjoys traveling and has made trips to Europe, US baseball stadiums, and a summer home in Rockport. They appreciate wine and food and love going out to dinner.

ERIC TARINI: Eric is originally from Detroit, Michigan. He had multiple careers, including work as an early childhood teacher, an energy conservation consultant, and (for the last 30 years before retirement) he worked in computer programming and training at a medical software company.

Eric has been married to Susan for 25 years. He enjoys going for walks and listening to music, especially to his favorite singers, John Denver and Smokey Robinson.
