October 2019

BRAVO, BUSY HANDS for raising $2,080 to benefit Safe People Safe Pets, a foster program that finds temporary shelter for pets of domestic violence victims. The raffle of Judy Goodwin-Lennemann's much-coveted Ginger the Giraffe netted $800 of the total. (Left to right) Ginger, Judy, and volunteer Alice Wright.

PARADE VIPS: Prominently riding in the Grand Marshall’s car, residents Gil Zucker (back, driver’s side) and Les Gediman (front, passenger side) led Marlborough’s annual Labor Day parade. “We were honored to have Gil and Les participate,” said Trish Bernard of the Marlborough mayor’s office. “We always choose someone who has given back to the community and—this year—all World War II vets, collectively, were our Grand Marshalls.”

NEW HORIZONS VETERANS PORTRAIT: Our annual group picture will be taken Friday, October 11 at 10:30 AM in the Atrium. Please stay tuned to 918 for further details regarding the group picture.

MAN OF HISTORY

New Horizons volunteer Bob Fagone, host of “Classics Read Aloud,” recently gave a talk on a favorite topic, the history of Marlborough. As chair of Marlborough’s Historical Commission, he helped bring the Museum in the Streets to downtown Marlborough. Twenty-four panels highlight the city’s contributions in such key historic eras as the Revolutionary War and the Industrial Revolution.

We are pleased to welcome our new campus health care provider, Aveanna Health Care, effective October 1. More information will be shared with residents who will be receiving its services. If you have any questions, please contact Associate Director Cheryl Rank.

THANKSGIVING, NOVEMBER 28: Please make reservations for our sumptuous buffet by Friday, November 15. Guest tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for children under 10. Space is limited, so each resident is allowed a maximum of three guests. To purchase tickets, see Teresa or Amanda or email diningservices@cummings.com.
