FAMILY FESTIVAL: We were thrilled to bring back our popular fall event in honor of Grandparents Day after a three-year hiatus! Residents and families enjoyed music, dancing, a petting zoo, and balloon sculptures.

Resident Elizabeth Gebhard and her granddaughters sport balloon sculptures by balloon artist Donna Masterson.

Resident Mary Rebh enjoys time with some woolly visitors at the petting zoo.

We are pleased to welcome our new campus health care provider, Mary Ann Morse, in October. Mary Ann Morse operates a skilled nursing center and rehabilitation facility in Natick, as well as a visiting nurse agency and home health business.

The Busy Hands knitting and crochet group held a sale at the Family Festival to raise more than $775 for moms and newborn babies in need. Resident Anna Falcon (left) crocheted and raffled off a beautiful Noah's Ark blanket, which was won by fellow resident Sister Louise (right).
